ATTEST: J. M. Hatcher
City Clerk.

At a regular adjourned meeting of the Common Council of the City of Pikeville, Kentucky, convened and held in the city hall in the City of Pikeville, Kentucky, on the 22nd day of December, 1942, the following were present:

Mayor, M. D. Flanary,
and
Councilmen, F. H. Sharp,
T. J. Howell,
Walter Walters,
Charles R. Epperson and
J. K. Hatmaker.

Councilman, Charles E. Childers, was absent.

Notice to The Tavern and W. D. Snell, Owner and Operator, stating that revocation of their license would be considered by Council, was read in open Council, which was its license to sell whiskey at retail, granted June 30, 1942.

Hon. W. G. Wheeler, City Attorney, represented the plaintiff, City of Pikeville, and Hon. O. T. Hinton, an attorney of the Pike County Bar, represented the defendant, The Tavern, and W. D. Snell, its owner, and W. D. Snell was present in person. Both sides announced ready for trial.

The City Attorney, Mr. Wheeler, stated the case to the City Council and Mayor for the plaintiff, City of Pikeville. Mr. Hinton, attorney for defendant, likewise stated the case for the defendant.

On motion of the defendant, J. M. Hatcher, a shorthand reporter, was appointed to report the proceedings had upon said trial.

Both sides introduced various witnesses under oath, and after both plaintiff and defendant had announced through, council went into Executive session, and after deliberation returned to the council room in the City hall.

The Mayor stated that he was ready for vote upon question of revocation of license of The Tavern, W. D. Snell, owner, and that those in favor of revoking said license would answer "yes", and those opposed would answer "no".

The city clerk was directed to call the roll, and upon roll call the vote was as follows:

T. J. Howell,	No;
J. K. Hatmaker,	No;
Charles R. Epperson,	No;
F. H. Sharp,	Yes;
Walter Walters,	Yes;
Charles E. Childers,	Absent.

The Mayor declared that the "Noes" had a majority of the vote, and that said licenses would stand as they were, not revoked.

Upon motion made, duly seconded and carried Council is adjourned until its next regular meeting.

APPROVED: M. D. Flanary
Mayor.

ATTEST: J. M. Hatcher
City Clerk.
