The Mayor read the following Resolution proclaiming week of March 19 through March 24 be known as Rescue Squad Week:

WHEREAS there has been organized and is maintained within the City of Pikeville, a Rescue Squad whose function and services are of great benefit and importance to the City Government its officials and the citizens of this and surrounding communities.

MINUTES } CITY OF PIKEVILLE

NOW THEREFORE, in recognition of the efficiency and to encourage the future maintenance and functions of this organization, the undersigned, under the power and authority vested in me do hereby proclaim March 19 to March 24, 1962 as Rescue Squad Week and do hereby recommend that all officials and employees of the City of Pikeville, and each and every citizen thereof, observe this week by giving such aid and encouragement as they can to this worthy organization.

It is ordered that this proclamation be published in one of the issues of the Pike County News, next preceeding the designation period.

Done this 12th day of March, 1962, by direction and with the consent of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Pikeville, Kentucky.

W. C. HAMBLEY, Mayor

Mayor proclaimed Virgie Day, Thursday, March 15, 1962, for the fine representation of the Virgie Basketball Team in the tournaments.

Mr. Bobbitt, Librarian for the City Library, spoke to the Commissioners about finding a place for the library as the place where it is presently located will soon be sold; and about increasing the City's appropriation to the Library this fiscal year so that it could qualify for State Aid. The Commissioners said they would be glad to cooperate and help in any way and suggested that the Library Committee study needs and furnish figures on how much space would be needed in another building.

Orville Phillips spoke to the Mayor and Commissioners about the blocking of street by Eastern Kentucky Beverage trucks while loading and unloading. The Mayor directed the City Manager to look into this situation and to do something about it.

Gus Poulos spoke to the Commissioners about people driving to fast on Sycamore Street.
