CITY CLERK

At a regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Pikeville, Kentucky held in City Hall on July 12, 1965, at 7:30 P. M. the following members were present.

Commissioners: F. W. Baker
Harry Hobson
Kermit Sexton
Uhlán Taylor

Uhlán Taylor presided as Mayor Pro-tem in the absence of Mayor Hambley.

The City Clerk read the minutes of the June Meetings.

City Attorney O. T. Hinton presented the following resolution to the Commission.

RESOLUTION

It appearing that the City of Pikeville has heretofore organized an airport board known as Pikeville-Pike County Airport Board in conjunction with Pike County and it further appearing that the Fiscal Court of Pike County and the officials of Pike County have failed and refused to cooperate with the City or contribute to the financial needs of the Board in acquiring the property and funds necessary to provide airport facilities for this community and that everything that has been done so far to that end has been done thru the efforts and activity of the City and its officials.

NOW THEREFORE be it resolved that the City Attorney be authorized to take such steps as maybe necessary to disassociate the City from Pike County in the furtherance of the Airport Board if that is legally possible and report his action thereunder to the next meeting of this board.

F. W. Baker made the motion to adopt the foregoing resolution. Kermit Sexton seconded the motion. Upon roll call the vote was as follows:

Commissioner:	F. W. Baker	Yes
	Harry hobson	No
	Kermit Sexton	Yes
	Uhlán Taylor	Yes

The Mayor Pro-tem declared the Resolution adopted.

Kermit Sexton made the motion to authorize the City Manager to investigate the matter of annexing an area east of the present city limits as requested by a petition presented by residents of said area. F. W. Baker seconded the motion and upon roll call the vote was as follows:
