CITY COMMISSION MEETING

JULY 14, 1969

PRESENT:

William C. Hambley
 Harry Hobson
 Orville Clark

ABSENT:

Kermit Sexton
 Warren Keene

A delegation appeared in regard the repairs to the coal dock on South College Street and they were advised by the City Manager that according to information, the owners had stopped working on the dock.

There appeared a delegation from Lower Chloe Creek in regard the water-sewer project. The Mayor and City Manager advised that they had been in contact with the engineers and that the engineers advised them that the plans would be ready in the middle of July 1969.

Bud Helvey appeared and asked for information in regard the William King House on Ferguson Creek Road. The City Manager advised him that the hearing on the question of condemnation of the building had been set for Monday, July 28, 1969, at 7:00 p.m.

B. P. Bogardus appeared in regard the traffic flow in town since the installation of the traffic lights regulating the traffic on the Middle Bridge. He recommended that the bridge be returned to its former status of a two way bridge. He further recommended that the corner between Pike and Main Streets be straighten up so as to have a direct line of traffic to the bridge, and that the corner at Second and Huffman Streets should be run off two lanes of traffic going around this corner.

Commissioner Harry Hobson moved that city bills in the amount of $26,951.46 be paid.

Commissioner Orville Clark seconded the motion.

Mayor William C. Hambley objected to the bill of Del Chemical Corporation in the amount of $206.40 for 96 cases of lektriklean. The City Manager suggested that this claim not be paid and that the merchandise be returned to the company for credit.
