/s/ Thomas Howell

/s/ W. E. Butcher

/s/ Kermit Sexton

The Mayor began the meeting with the first item on the agenda:

EXTRA PARKING SPACES DURING THE HOLIDAYS

Commissioner Robert Amos said he and Commissioner Butcher had checked everywhere in town and had found several places that could be used for parking. Mr. Amos asked Mr. Butcher to report their findings. Mr. Butcher said he and Mr. Amos had come up with the following recommendations to help with parking during the holidays:

1. Angle parking against the Bakery rather than parallel parking.
2. Parking behind old Freight Station where the tracks are now by graveling over the tracks and making an entrance at the lower and upper end of the old Freight Station.
3. One space in front of Pike Hardware on Second Street where the "No Parking Anytime" sign is.
4. Place 4 meters in front of the Recruiting Offices that recently burned. Mr. Butcher also suggested that someone check with the Building Committee to see if re-construction of the building is going
